

Where to stay

Each area of Paris has its own distinct atmosphere. Some arrondissements are residential (7th, 15th, 16th), some known for their nightlife (3rd, 10th, 11th), others chic (6th, 7th, 8th), while some are more family-orientated (12th, 13th, 14th, 15th).

📍 Find the addresses on the detachable map (inside the cover) using the numbers included in the listings (ex. 1). The coordinates in red (ex. D2) refer to the same map.

Our price ranges are established on the basis of one night in a standard double in low/high season. You may also find special promotional prices.

LA CITÉ AND LES QUAIS

From €85 to 130

1 Hôtel de Nesle - E5 - 7 r. de Nesle, 6th - M^o Odéon or St-Michel - ☎01 43 54 62 41 - www.hoteldenesleparis.com - 📍 - 19 rooms. A characterful hidden gem in the heart of the Latin Quarter. The rooms – some without en-suites – are each inventively decorated around a theme (colonial, oriental, countryside, Molière). The garden features Tunisian palm trees.

LE MARAIS AND LES HALLES

From €130 to 150

2 Hôtel Andréa Rivoli - F5 - 3 r. St-Bon, 4th - M^o Châtelet - ☎01 42 78 43 93 - www.andreahotel.fr - 32 rooms. You will not be disappointed with this very centrally located hotel. The whole property is entirely renovated (reception, rooms and breakfast rooms); the décor is contemporary and there is air-conditioning throughout.

From €160 to 230

3 Hôtel Crayon - E4 - 25 r. du Bouloi, 1st - M^o Palais-Royal-Musée-du-Louvre - ☎01 42 36 54 19 - www.hotelcrayon.com - 26 rooms - Breakfast €12. A welcoming and colourful hotel with décor courtesy of artist Julie Gauthron, who has given character to each room. The atmosphere is cosy with a homely bar space and a delightful hotchpotch of second-hand furniture.

From €195 to 250

4 Hôtel du Petit Moulin - G4 - 29 r. de Poitou, 3rd - M^o St-Sébastien-Froissart - ☎01 42 74 10 10 - www.hoteldupanditmoulin.com - 📍 - 17 rooms - Breakfast €17. Christian Lacroix is behind the décor of this hotel. The look is unusual, sophisticated and flashy, blending tradition and modernity: think free-standing baths and kitsch patterns.

QUARTIER LATIN

From €99 to 169

16 Hôtel Henriette - F8 - 9 r. des Gobelins, 13th - M^o Les Gobelins - ☎01 47 07 26 90 - www.hotelhenriette.com - 32 rooms - Breakfast €12. Located a few short steps from the Latin Quarter, Hôtel Henriette has got bags of charm with its pastel-toned colour scheme, designer light fixtures and
